

My Role Model

A role model in my life is my aunt. My aunt is a very independent woman; she raised three children on her own, while working as a full time nurse. She is a loyal, honest, and truthful person. She speaks her mind, whether it's good or bad, but she doesn't mean to hurt your feelings. She helped my grandma raise me into the woman I am today. My aunt is someone who is like a mother to me. I am very lucky and thankful for all that she has done. She believes that you don't have to fix a problem by fighting and arguing with each other.
